Ras Al Khaimah

Ras Al Khaimah is the northernmost emirate in the UAE. It is home to cloud-piercing mountains, lush mangroves, terracotta deserts and almost endless beaches. The rich culture of Ras Al Khaimah extends over seven millennia and embraces colourful Bedouin and Emirati traditions. Year-round sunshine, world class hotels, extraordinary attractions and a warm Emirati welcome, make it the perfect getaway destination.

VISITOR MAP

Jebel Jais Mountains

Jebel Jais is the highest mountain in the UAE and attracts thrill-seekers and nature lovers. While visitors and residents look to escape the heat during summer months, Jebel Jais offers outdoor adventures and diverse scenery at significantly cooler temperatures (10°C cooler on average). Jebel Jais is home to Jais Flight, the world's longest zipline experience, the family-friendly Jais Sledder as well as hiking trails for all levels and dining at 1484 by Puro, the highest restaurant in the UAE.

Al Jazeera Al Hamra

As the last standing authentic village in the UAE dating back to 17th century, Al Jazeera Al Hamra is an archeological marvel. The ancient pearling village features all elements of a traditional town, including a fortress, a small market, several mosques and a variety of houses. It's on the UNESCO World Heritage Cultural Tentative List, representing classic architecture and the traditional lifestyle in the Middle East.

Golf

Ras Al Khaimah boasts two world class golf courses. Al Hamra Golf Club, became the first course in the region to host back to back DP World Tour events. The Harradine designed course, managed by Troon Golf, is cleverly designed around five lagoons. Tower Links Golf Club is a Par 72 course located amongst a mangrove reserve and framed by the dramatic Hajar Mountains. Both courses are set up for golfers of all level and both venues provide fantastic restaurants and lounges.

Hot Air Balloon Experience

Experience Ras Al Khaimah's stunning natural beauty from a new perspective with hot air balloon flights in Ras Al Khaimah. The picturesque experience sets afloat in the Al Wadi desert. Taking flight just before sunrise, the journey lasts approximately 60-minutes where visitors can marvel at the desert dunes, majestic Hajar Mountains and glistening coastline. Following that, visitors will be transported to the Majlis for a delicious Bubbly Breakfast.

Malls and Souks

Ras Al Khaimah is the ideal shopping destination for visitors seeking everything from high street fashion, handcrafted wares, heady Arabian perfumes, textiles, food and antiques. The interesting Emirate offers marble-clad modern shopping malls, local markets as well as traditional souks. Al Mairid Souq and Kuwaiti Souqs are the traditional bustling markets packed with heavily fragranced spices, trinkets, electronics, fabrics, carpets, apparel and travel accessories.

Dhayah Fort

Dhayah Fort is the only hill fort remaining in the UAE and is on the UNESCO World Heritage Tentative List. It dates back to the Late Bronze Age (1600 – 1300 BC) when locals used it for settlement and fortification. The twin-peaked golden mud-brick fortress was built during the 19th century and restored in the late 1990s. It is certainly worth climbing the zigzagging steps to bear witness to the spectacular views of the lush palm gardens, the sea and the dramatic mountains.

Al Wadi Nature Reserve

The protected nature reserve spans 500 hectares at Ritz Carlton Al Wadi and is home to a diverse range of free-roaming wildlife. Visitors can learn about the desert ecosystem and watch more than 50 species of birds, prized falcons and owls, beautiful Arabian horses, bombastic camels, the rare Arabian oryx, sand gazelles, and, if you are lucky, the occasional desert fox in their natural environment.
